Allsouth Professional Liability specializes in underwriting and brokering all lines of Professional Liability Insurance in the southeastern United States.

As a program administrator we handle specialty products with speed and ease as a result of our product knowledge and market experience; our underwriters/brokers have an average of 15 years experience to help serve you.

As a surplus lines broker we have the freedom to choose and be flexible in the marketplace, and you have the confidence you need to allow us to work for you and obtain the best terms with the best available companies.

We are an organization that is experienced and devoted to placing coverage for professionals, and we hope to hear from you soon.

Allsouth's dedicated brokers are here to answer any professional liability marketplace question you might have and will be happy to provide you a quote. We operate as an open wholesale market and do not require you to be appointed to submit an application for a quote. Our goal is to become your "go to" wholesale and E&S market by providing unprecedented service.

Give us a try and find out why Allsouth is becoming a new southern tradition.
